

Interaction of Medications and Substances with Brain Injuries

Event Topic

Brain Injury

Date / Time

Wed, Jun 14, 2023

11:00am - 12:00pm

Location

Virtual

Description

This webinar will discuss general principles of medication management of neuropsychiatric symptoms after brain injury, explain which medication classes should be avoided (or used with caution) in individuals with brain injury, describe pharmacologic strategies for managing mood and behavioral disturbances in individuals with brain injury, and describe pharmacologic strategies for supporting cognitive function in individuals with brain injury.

Objectives

- Discuss general principles of medication management of neuropsychiatric symptoms after brain injury;
- Explain which medication classes should be avoided (or used with caution) in individuals with brain injury;
- Describe pharmacologic strategies for managing mood and behavioral disturbances in individuals with brain injury;
- Describe pharmacologic strategies for supporting cognitive function in individuals with brain injury.

Individuals with disabilities are encouraged to attend all University of Iowa sponsored events. If you are a person who requires a reasonable accommodation in order to participate in this program, please contact Victoria at victoria-keith@uiowa.edu.

The Iowa Board of Certification has approved the training for 1.0 CEU of Counseling Theories & Techniques OR Alcohol & Drug Specific.

Live ASL interpretation will be provided and Zoom captions will be enabled. Other reasonable accommodations may be requested by contacting Victoria by emailing victoria-keith@uiowa.edu.

Participants will receive a certificate of attendance within 30 days of the webinar.

Register

Presenter(s)

Dr. Lindsey Gurin (NYU Langone Health)

Dr. Lindsey Gurin, MD is dually board-certified in neurology and psychiatry and is clinical assistant professor of Neurology, Psychiatry, and Rehabilitation Medicine at NYU Grossman School of Medicine. A graduate of the Alpert Medical School of Brown University, Dr. Gurin completed her combined psychiatry/neurology residency training at NYU and is currently Director of Behavioral Neurology at NYU Langone Orthopedics Hospital, where she provides inpatient neuropsychiatric consultation to the Rusk Brain Injury Rehabilitation Program. She is Director of the NYU Combined Psychiatry/Neurology Residency Training Program and oversees the neurology and psychiatry education components of the NYU Brain Injury Medicine Fellowship. Dr. Gurin's academic work focuses on neuropsychiatric manifestations of acquired brain injury, and she has published on such topics as posttraumatic psychosis, disorders of consciousness, and catatonia in patients with neurologic disorders.

Image

Clinical assistant professor of Neurology, Psychiatry, and Rehabilitation Medicine at NYU Grossman School of Medicine

Attachments

LPA Webinar Calendar Flyer.pdf(170.17 KB)

For more information about this YLI Calendar Event, please email yli@hhs.iowa.gov