1:00 - 2:30pm

Location

Virtual

Overview

Whether you're leading or coordinating, facilitation is a game-changer for working with groups. This virtual session will introduce you to facilitative leadership—a practical approach that helps people work together to achieve real results. You'll learn the basics of facilitation, when to use it, and how it differs from more traditional styles. By the end, you'll have simple, effective tools to engage others and drive meaningful action in your community efforts. Join us to see how facilitation can make your work more impactful.
