

Unleash Your Superpowers!

Wednesday, April 23

Buena Vista University, Storm Lake

You are an unsung hero making an impact in behavioral health and human services.

Brave Leadership sees, feels, and understands the toll that being a super hero in the nonprofit sector takes on you, personally and professionally. To celebrate and elevate your important work, please join your peers for an interactive day of empowered learning and skill-building at the Unsung Heroes Summit on Wednesday, April 23, at Buena Vista University in Storm Lake. We invite you to experience for yourself why previous participants rate the Unsung Heroes Summit as one of the best professional development events they've ever attended!

Why Attend?

- Boost Your Leadership Superpowers! Learn and practice evidence-based strategies and tools to lead effectively and confidently in high-stress environments.
- Build Your Hero Network! Connect with fellow heroes among nonprofit service agencies and providers, sharing experiences and sparking innovative solutions to common challenges.
- Champion Your Wellbeing! Learn practical techniques to manage stress, prevent burnout, and maintain your own health and happiness while serving others.
- Celebrate Your Heroic Contributions! Take time to recognize and celebrate the incredible differences you make for youth, individuals, families, and communities every day!
