

Think opening the windows gets rid of all smoke? Nope! Because smoke can move through vents, linger on furniture and more.

Option 1

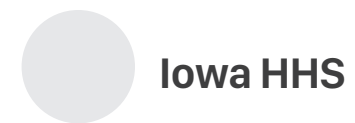

Smoke Free Homes works to eliminate second and thirdhand smoke exposure for renters. You can help create a healthier living environment, too, by not smoking in your home.

Learn more: youtube.com/watch?v=L5YrCewXnwl

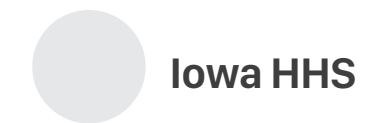

Option 2

The first step to protecting those you love from secondhand smoke? Finding a smoke free place to live. Start here: hhs.iowa.gov/smokefreehomes

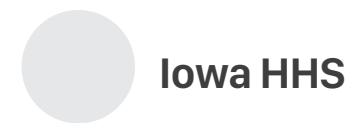

Option 1

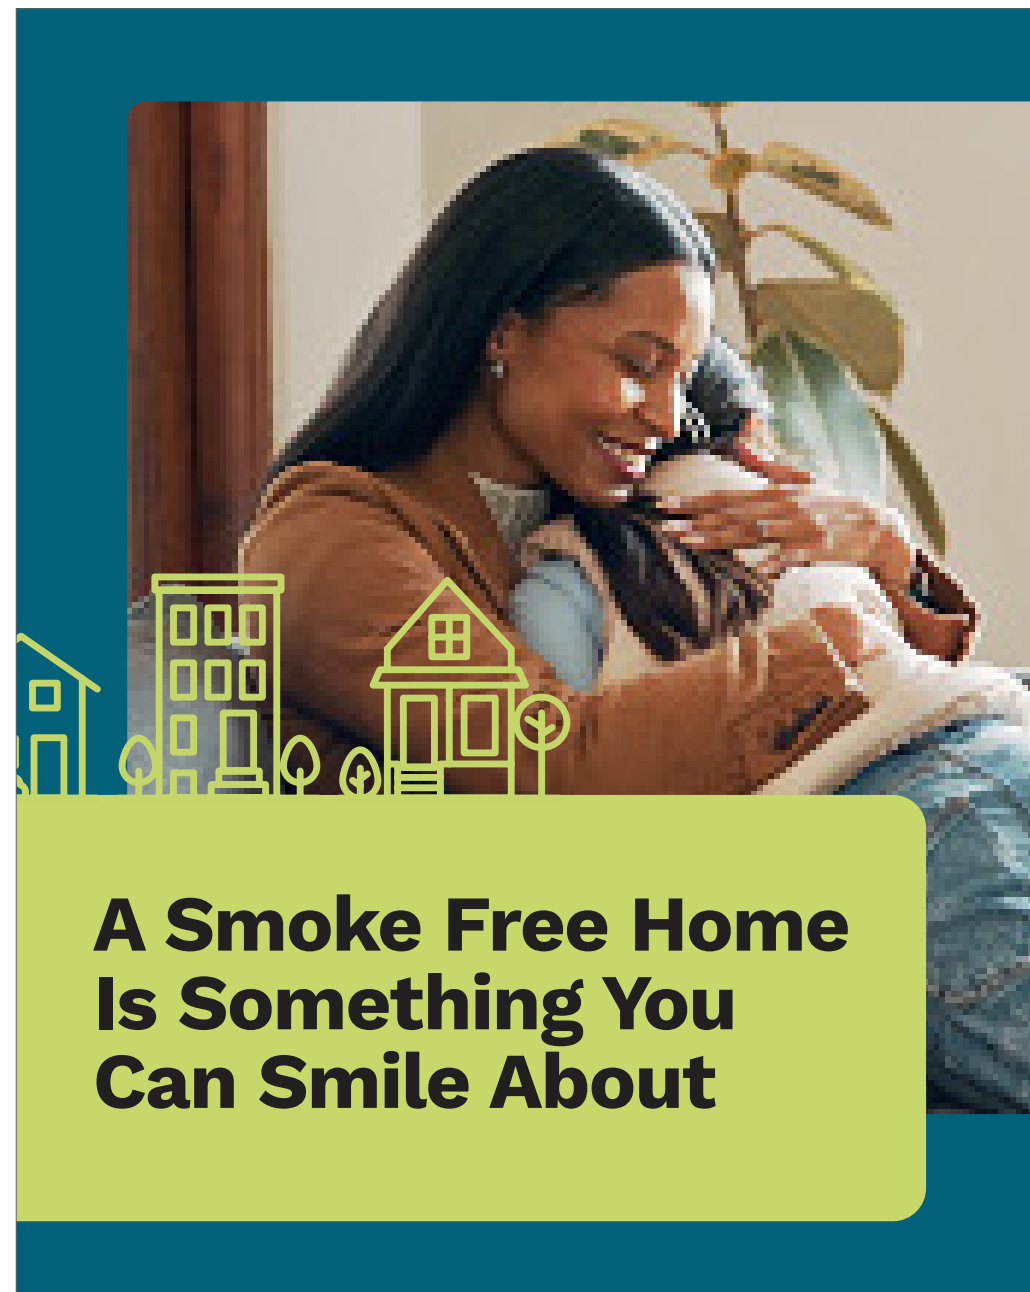

Since 80% of Iowans don't smoke, it's no wonder they want smoke free housing. Find a smoke free property near you: hhs.iowa.gov/smokefreehomes

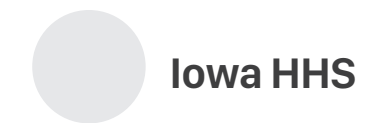

Option 2

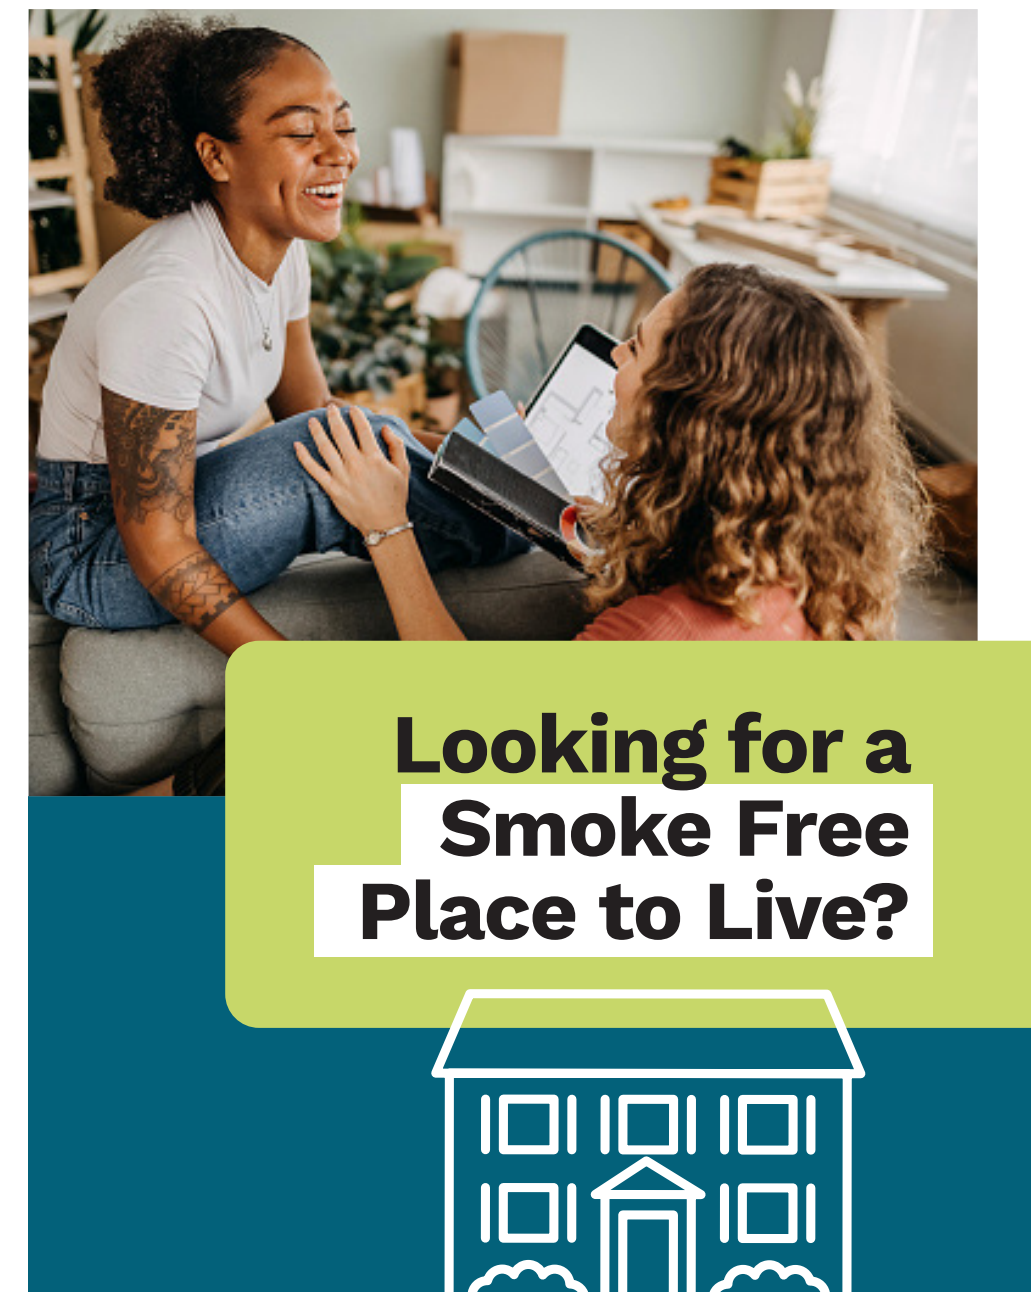

Knowing you're providing your loved ones a safe place to live without the dangers of secondhand smoke is a good reason to smile. See a list of more than 1,800 smoke free properties in Iowa: hhs.iowa.gov/smokefreehomes

Option 1

The Smoke Free Homes Registry is your place to start when you want smoke free housing. Check it out here: hhs.iowa.gov/smokefreehomes

Option 2